S-W student pages for Sen. Ranker

Cascade Middle School eighth-grader Lindsey Fischer spent the week of Feb. 4 serving as a page for the Washington State Senate at the Capitol in Olympia.

She was sponsored by Sen. Kevin Ranker of the 40th Legislative District.

Senate pages are responsible for such tasks as transporting bills between legislators and delivering messages and mail. Pages spend time in the Senate chamber and also attend page school to learn about parliamentary procedure and the legislative process.

Lindsey said her favorite part of the week-long internship was delivering messages throughout the Capitol building and making friends.

Lindsey is the daughter of Becky and Barry Fischer of Sedro-Woolley.

SVC student named to academic team

Skagit Valley College student Norma Domingo of Oak Harbor was recognized and honored March 21 as a member of the 18th annual All-Washington Academic Team during a ceremony at South Puget Sound Community College in Olympia.

Domingo, 23, is a U.S. Navy veteran and is enrolled at Skagit Valley College's Whidbey Island Campus, where she has a cumulative 3.84 GPA. She is on track to graduate in June with an Associate in Business Administration degree. She plans to continue her studies at the University of Washington.

This year's team is made of 65 students from 34 community and technical colleges in Washington. KeyBank of Washington awarded each student a $500 scholarship. Gov. Jay Inslee congratulated each student, who also received a commemorative medallion from his or her college president.

Math Team qualifies for state competition

The Anacortes High School Math Team is headed to state. The team competed March 6 in the Washington State Math Council regional contest, and seven team members qualified for the state contest.

Senior Adam Dunlap and sophomore Chaelee Dalton earned first- and secondplace, respectively, in the region for Individual Topical Problems. Sophomore Dylan Calvert and freshman Alexandra Hanesworth won the Distinguished Sophomore and Freshman awards

The team of senior Wan Wan Chen, junior RuYang He and freshman Jinae Powell earned state-qualifying scores in both the Team Topical and Team Problem categories.

The state competition was scheduled for April 13 in Yakima. Results from the competition will be forthcoming.
